

Royal Observatory Greenwich

Located in the heart of the UNESCO World Heritage site at Greenwich, the National Maritime Museum's four unique venues provide a tranquil setting for any event, whilst being only 20 minutes away from the hustle and bustle of the city centre.

Within the historic Flamsteed House at the Royal Observatory Greenwich, sits the charming Octagon Room, the last surviving interior designed by Sir Christopher Wren. This elegant venue is ideal for high profile corporate dinners and receptions. Guests can enjoy spectacular views across London and gaze at the stars with a private telescope viewing after dinner. Explore the history of time in the galleries or stand on the Meridian Line while enjoying a drinks reception at this fabulous historic venue.
