

Use these spaces to note down any evidence you find to answer your questions as you investigate the galleries. When you have finished investigating your three galleries you can use this information to answer the overall question.

Tudor and Stuart Seafarers Gallery -

What important events involving English ships and sailors happened at sea?

Atlantic Worlds Gallery -

How did the Transatlantic Slave Trade affect people's identities?

Nelson Navy Nation Gallery -

What different groups of people helped to contribute to Britain through seafaring?

How have our identities been shaped by migration and movement at sea?

Migration, Britain and the World

How have our identities been shaped by migration and movement at sea?

Key stage 4

KS4

Migration, Britain and the World

How have our identities been shaped by migration and movement at sea?

You will be investigating a question across 3 galleries.
Working in groups of three find and collect evidence to help you to answer your question.

Find in the gallery -
This painting showing a ship called The Sovereign of the Seas which was meant to show the power of King Charles I

Find in the gallery -
'Elizabeth's Song' in the Spanish Armada section to learn more about how the Armada has been remembered by people in England

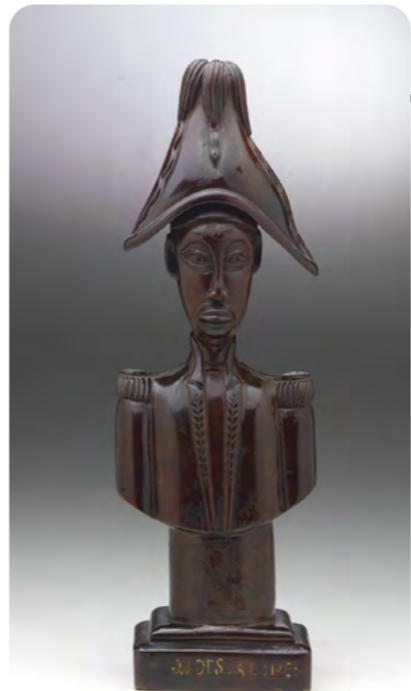

Tudor and Stuart Seafarers Gallery
- What important events involving English ships and sailors happened at sea?

Find in the gallery -
Evidence of people who resisted slavery in Britain as part of the Abolition campaign

Find in the gallery -
The videos about modern day legacies of the Transatlantic Slave Trade

Atlantic Worlds Gallery -
How did the Transatlantic Slave Trade affect people's identities?

How have our identities been shaped by migration and movement at sea?

Find in the gallery -
Information about sailors and their lives on board ships.

Find in the gallery -
Evidence of how people resisted enslavement in particular in Haiti and Jamaica

Nelson Navy Nation Gallery
What different groups of people helped to contribute to Britain through seafaring?

Extra Objects -
This painting is by an artist called Turner; it shows the battle of Trafalgar. Some naval figures at the time didn't like it as Turner had changed how some events happened during the battle. At the front there is a dying sailor and a British Flag. Paintings like this were displayed publicly and affected how people thought about Britain and the Navy

Find in the gallery -
How different jobs on land made seafaring possible

Migration, Britain and the World

How have our identities been shaped by migration and movement at sea?