

School Programmes Facilitator (Storytelling)

About us

Royal Museums Greenwich is a world-class museum service situated at the heart of Maritime Greenwich UNESCO World Heritage Site in South-East London, comprising of the Royal Observatory, Cutty Sark, National Maritime Museum and the Queen's House. Together we are dedicated to enriching people's understanding of the sea, the exploration of space, and Britain's role in world history. This role will work across the National Maritime Museum and the Queen's House.

Outline of the role

Royal Museums Greenwich is looking for a facilitator to assist and deliver on our storytelling focused EYFS, KS1 and KS2 programmes. The post holder will deliver sessions for a range of primary aged formal learners in Cutty Sark, the Queen's House and the National Maritime Museum. This will involve preparing resources, setting-up for sessions and delivering workshops. You will also be asked to contribute to devising new programmes and carry out other school-related duties as required.

Our schools primary programs aim to excite children about heritage, history and the arts, covering a range of topics and cross-curricular themes. There will be opportunities participate in the Early Years family program as well.

Person specification

Essential skills

- Experience of working with primary school groups
- Creative skills in either storytelling or drama
- Strong facilitation and presentation skills
- Strong communication skills

Desirable skills

- Experience of working in a museum or gallery setting
- Knowledge of working with sensitive histories
- Experience of delivering object-handling sessions
- A willingness to explore digital storytelling
- An understanding of the current curriculum

Contract

£165 per day (payment subject to National Insurance and tax deductions)

Freelance 0 hours contract

Must be available term-time for the academic year 2021-2022

Application process

Please send a CV and a cover letter detailing how you meet the person specification to learning@rmg.co.uk.

Ideally the successful applicant will be available to attend paid training on working with sensitive histories on 1st/2nd December.

Deadline: 19th November 10am