

ESOL Entry level 2 - Post visit activities

Text A : Read the text then answer the questions below

The National Maritime Museum (NMM) is in Greenwich, London. It has 15 galleries, over five floors: exploring the influence of the sea on history and culture. The NMM also contains the world's largest maritime library and archive collection. It has the most important holdings in the world on the history of Britain at sea with more than two million items.

The museum includes a gallery of special exhibitions, including a permanent gallery "Voyagers" which introduces the story of Britain and the sea. Discover epic stories of exploration and that have shaped our world today.

Visit the National Maritime Museum for free.

1. Read the text again. Are these statements True or False?

- a) The National Maritime Museum is also known as NRM.
- b) It has over 15 galleries.
- c) Voyagers gallery introduces the story of Berlin and the sea.
- d) You can discover epic stories of exploration.
- e) The library and archive collection has over two million items in the museum.
- f) The museum has the most most important holdings in the world on the history of Britain at sea.
- g) It is a free to visit.

2. Read the text again. Underline all the verbs in the text.

3. Write two sentences using nouns from the text.

E.g. Did you discover how to turn your phone off?

.....

.....

4. a) Things to see at the NMM - Read each box and match the image to the text.

1. Sea Things gallery

Find your connection to the sea, explore objects, and share stories.

The Sea Things gallery has talking sculptures, objects you can touch, and even a pocket watch worn by a victim of the Titanic disaster.

Explore the rich stories of migration, hear from communities about their own diverse experiences and celebrate our shared histories and heritage.

A.

2. Pacific Encounters

Discover hidden stories of exploration and exploitation.

The Pacific is the world's largest ocean and people have lived there for thousands of years. Learn more about the legacies and traditions living there.

Learn how to greet Adi Yeta, a Fijian open ocean canoe, and explore Pacific histories of boatbuilding and navigation.

B.

C.

3. Atlantic Worlds

The gallery is about the movement of people, goods and ideas across and around the Atlantic Ocean from the 17th century to the 19th century. The connections created by these movements affected people across three continents. Four main themes are explored within the gallery, including exploration, war, enslavement and resistance.

Answer sheet

1. F, F, F, T, T, T

2. Has x 2, exploring, contains, comprising, including, introduces, discover, shaped

3. Check answers.

4. a) 1-C 2-A 3-B
  - 1) Talking sculptures and a pocket watch.
  - 2) Accept any reasonable answer.
  - 3) False
  - 4) Discover hidden stories of exploration and exploitation.
  - 5) Pacific Encounters
  - 6) Four main themes
  - 7) Accept any reasonable answer.

