Present your investigations!

Working in small groups and sharing your findings, decide which evidence of Cutty Sark's historical importance would be best to present to get the money to fix the ship.

Write a letter to persuade funders to donate money to repair the ship.

Persuasive ph	rases:
		For evernle
	In contrast	For example
Furthermore	For instance

Back at school

Ask for extra time to prepare your 'case'.

Preparation ideas:

Further research

Find images

Create a presentation

Present your evidence and your teacher will decide if your application is successful and whether Cutty Sark receives the money!

Historical enquiry trail KS2

Use your discovery skills to find out why Cutty Sark is an important London landmark. The situation detailed below is imaginary, but your discoveries are real!

The scenario

Imagine Cutty Sark has a water leak which desperately needs repairing. The leak will cost £1 million to fix. Without this repair the ship may have to close.

You are part of a team of historical investigators. Your job is to investigate and discover what makes Cutty Sark important. If you can prove that Cutty Sark is historically important the money will be given to fix the leak!

Is Cutty Sark important and worth fixing?

You are using historical enquiry skills to make observations! As historical investigators, you are going to continue to use your skills to explore the rest of the ship.

What do you see and what does this tell us about Cutty Sark?

Location: Lower Hold

Look around the Lower Hold for evidence to prove that Cutty Sark is historically important – you can read the signs, look at the objects and watch the video. Make notes and drawings here:

Is there something here that you think is particularly important or interesting?

4

Location: 'Tween Deck

Look around the 'Tween Deck for evidence to prove that Cutty Sark is historically important – you can read the signs, look at the objects and watch the video. Is there something here that you think is particularly important or interesting?

Location: Weather Deck

Look around the Weather Deck for evidence to prove that Cutty Sark is important. Is there something here that you think is particularly important or interesting?

Make notes and drawings here:

What have you discovered and why do you think it is important or interesting?