

Cutty Sark* Schools' Programme, 2016–17

Come aboard Cutty Sark and experience the great age of sail!

The world's last surviving tea clipper offers a unique and memorable learning experience for pupils of all ages.

Choose a self-directed visit or one of our fabulous facilitated workshops for FS–KS2. We also offer cross-site visits with the National Maritime Museum to help you make the most of your day in Greenwich.

All workshops include opportunities to explore the ship and discover what life was like on board. Each session is led by an experienced facilitator and supports the National Curriculum.

Cutty Sark* self-directed visits

Tailor a visit to the needs of your class.

The fascinating stories of the ship and her crew, as well as her Victorian structure, offer a whole range of opportunities to support learning across the curriculum, from literacy and humanities to numeracy, art and design, and design technology.

Self-directed visits to the ship can be booked on weekdays during term time where workshops are not running (subject to availability).

Self-directed visits can be booked at 10.00, 11.00 or 12.00.

Recommended duration is 60 to 90 minutes, though groups are welcome to stay longer.
Up to two classes of 30 children per day
£90 per group

FS A sailor went to sea

Meet Jack, a friendly rat who dreams of being a sailor but everywhere he goes people are scared. Join Jack when he sneaks aboard Cutty Sark on his first-ever voyage. Explore together and help him learn sailor skills. Will he be allowed to join the crew?

60-minute session and self-directed visit:
10.00–11.45, 11.30–13.15 or 12.45–14.30.

The day accommodates up to three classes of 30 children per day.

£140 per group

Curriculum links: literacy, communication and language, stories, role-play, understanding the world.

FS All aboard the story ship

By the setting of our figurehead collection, meet Tam O'Shanter, Meg the horse and Nannie the witch, and find out how a high-speed pursuit in the dark inspired shipowner Jock Willis to name his new ship Cutty Sark.

The story will be revealed through role-play, music and dance before the pupils make their own figurehead model to take back to school for more storytelling inspiration.

60-minute session and self-directed visit:
10.00–11.45, 11.30–13.15 or 12.45–14.30.

The day accommodates up to three classes of 30 children per day.

£140 per group

Curriculum links: literacy, communication and language, stories, role play, art and design

KS1 A sailor went to sea

Ahoy shipmates! Can you help Cutty Sark sail safely around the world?

Practise sailor skills with our wise old figureheads, then set sail on board for a voyage of discovery and adventure.

Children will find out what sailors ate for dinner, sing songs and explore before...disaster! All hands on deck to save the ship!

60-minute session and self-directed visit:
10.00–11.45, 11.30–13.15 or 12.45–14.30.

The day accommodates up to three classes of 30 children per day.

£140 per group

Curriculum links: literacy, stories, vocabulary, historic places, geography, trade, drama

KS2 A Sailor went to sea

Visit Cutty Sark and the National Maritime Museum in one day to find all the inspiration children need to write creative stories set at sea.

At Cutty Sark, children will step into the shoes of the crew as they embark on an unforgettable voyage aboard the ship. Taking a letter written by a young apprentice as a starting point, groups will explore prop bags and clues before recreating a journey at sea through role play.

At the National Maritime Museum, children explore the theme further with our self-guided Story-Ship trail.

60-minute session and self-directed visit to the ship and National Maritime Museum:
10.00–13.15 (2 groups) or
11.15–14.30 (1 group)

The day accommodates up to three classes of 30 children per day.

£140 per group.

Curriculum links: literacy, vocabulary, drama, local history, Victorians, geography, maps, trade.

KS2 The Captain's challenge

Meet Captain Woodget, Cutty Sark's most daring master and hear his incredible stories of life at sea. Have your class got what it takes to join his crew?

After exploring the ship and completing the Captain's challenge, pupils will be put through their paces up on the main deck. Will they be hired as Victorian apprentices?

Self-directed activity followed by a 45- minute actor-led session.
10.00–12.00, 11.40–13.30 or 12.40–14.30

The day accommodates up to three classes of 30 children per day.

£140 per group

Curriculum links: historical enquiry, Victorians, geography, maps and compasses, trade, design and technology.

KS2 Ships, maps and trade: the Great Tea Race

Explore maps and play games at Cutty Sark and the National Maritime Museum to discover how journeys and trade connect the world.

Discover the story of tea at Cutty Sark and set sail on an exciting journey from Victorian London to China. Children will find out what life was like for merchant sailors as they become key characters from the ship's past, study maps and images, and re-create weather conditions on board. Time to race home! which team will get back to London first?

Venture onto the Great Map at the National Maritime Museum to explore objects and trade with our trails.

60-minute session and self-directed visit of the ship and National Maritime Museum:
10.15–13.15 or 11.15–14.30.

The day accommodates up to two classes of 30 children per day.

£140 per group

Curriculum links: geography, weather, maps, trade, local history, Victorians, literacy.

SEND A sailor went to sea

Discover life at sea with Jack, our young boy who learns how to be a sailor on board Cutty Sark.

Using role-play, music, props and their imaginations, pupils will build an adventure together as they explore the ship and sail the high seas before returning to London.

This is a multi-sensory and participatory storytelling session led by an experienced facilitator.

It can accommodate up to ten children and their carers: however, we are only able to accommodate up to three wheelchair users per session.

This session is bookable on demand.
The day accommodates up to two groups per day.
£40 per group.

Themes: sailors, work, ships, the sea.

Sensory bags for self-directed SEND groups.

Sensory bags are available for SEND groups who prefer to book a self-directed visit rather than a facilitated workshop. Enquire about availability when making your booking.
