The Queen's House

Step inside Inigo Jones' architectural masterpiece to uncover our spectacular art collection and centuries of royal history, set within the grounds of the Maritime Greenwich UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Marvel at artworks by renowned artists such as Hogarth, Lowry, and the van de Veldes, and see pioneering paintings such as the Elizabeth I, the Armada Portrait and our new acquisition The Ship of Fools by Kehinde Wiley.

Primary Schools at the Queen's House

The Queen's House primary schools programme supports pupils to take their first steps in developing their artistic knowledge and building creative skills, taking inspiration from our beautiful surroundings and inspiring historical and contemporary artworks.

Make a day of it!

If you wish to plan a full day visit, we have a number of self-directed offers at our sister site the National Maritime Museum. Travel around the world on the 'Great Map' with our interactive iPads, visit our children's galleries 'AHOY!' and 'All Hands', or select a trail to help you explore the Museum. Alternatively you can book a self-directed visit to the Queen's House to enjoy the artworks at your leisure. Please book in advance.

Online resources

We have a range of learning resources available online to support pre and post-visit activities to the Queen's House and National Maritime Museum. Visit rmg.co.uk/schools.

Arts Award

The Queen's House is an official Arts Award Supporter. If your pupils are working towards an Arts Award at any level from Discover through to Gold, then a visit to the Queen's House can support their work and can be documented for their evidence. To find out more about Arts Award visit artsaward.org.uk.

Artsmark

A visit to the Queen's House can be used as evidence to demonstrate that your school champions arts and culture, and can contribute to your school achieving Bronze, Silver or Gold Artsmark recognition. To find out more about Artsmark visit artsmark.org.uk.

Teachers

We provide free CPD training sessions for primary teachers which we can deliver at the Queen's House or at your school. We can also host your teacher events free of charge at either the Queen's House or the National Maritime Museum. Contact learning@rmg.co.uk for more information.
