The Queen's House

Step inside Inigo Jones' architectural masterpiece to uncover our spectacular art collection and centuries of royal history, set within the grounds of the Maritime Greenwich UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Marvel at artworks by renowned artists such as Hogarth, Lowry, and the van de Veldes, and see pioneering paintings such as the Elizabeth I, the Armada Portrait and our new acquisition The Ship of Fools by Kehinde Wiley.

Art and Design Students at the Queen's House

The Queen's House art and design programme supports students to develop their artistic knowledge and creative skills, taking inspiration from our beautiful surroundings and our inspiring historical and contemporary artworks.

Museum as Muse

Key stage:	KS3, KS4 and KS5
School subject:	Art and Design
Session Times:	Flexible
Capacity:	Maximum 20 students per session
Session Price:	Free

Prepare your art and design students for GCSE and beyond. Your students will explore the galleries for inspiration using art and design techniques with skilled professional artists. The session can be tailored to your bespoke theme.

In 2018/2019 our sessions will include permanent and temporary artworks by contemporary artists such as Mat Collishaw, Tacita Dean, Kehinde Wiley and Yinka Shonibare MBE, plus historic artworks such as the famous Elizabeth I, the Armada Portrait.

Please aim to book at least four weeks in advance of your visit. Liaise with the Learning Team to arrange your bespoke session.

Students will:

- investigate and critically analyse sources within an art gallery environment
- gain an understanding of relevant artistic practices in the creative and cultural industries
- develop critical thinking, observation and object enquiry skills through a mixture of discussion, drawing and making activities

Online resources

We have art and design learning resources available online to support pre and post-visit activities and for self-guided visits to the Queen's House. Visit rmg.co.uk/schools.

Arts Award

The Queen's House is an official Arts Award Supporter. If your students are working towards an Arts Award at any level from Discover through to Gold, then a visit to the Queen's House can support their work and be documented for their evidence. To find out more about Arts Award visit artsaward.org.uk.

Artsmark

A visit to the Queen's House can be used as evidence to demonstrate that your school champions arts and culture, and can contribute to your school achieving Bronze, Silver or Gold Artsmark recognition. To find out more about Artsmark visit artsmark.org.uk.

Teachers

We provide free CPD training sessions for art and design teachers which we can deliver at the Queen's House or at your school. We can also host your teacher event free of charge at either the Queen's House or the National Maritime Museum. Contact learning@rmg.co.uk for more information.

Youth Programme

We run a broad and varied youth programme at the Queen's House and National Maritime Museum consisting of our Saturday Art and Design Club, Young Volunteer Projects, Creative Youth Challenges and more. For information about our extra-curricular activities email youngpeople@rmg.co.uk or visit rmg.co.uk/young-people.
