The Queen's House

Step inside Inigo Jones' architectural masterpiece to uncover our spectacular fine and contemporary art collection, set within the grounds of the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Maritime Greenwich.

Marvel at artworks by renowned artists such as Hogarth, Lowry and the van de Veldes, and see pioneering paintings such as Elizabeth I, the Armada Portrait and our new acquisition The Ship of Fools by Kehinde Wiley.

Art and design students at the Queen's House

The Queen's House art and design programme supports students to develop their artistic knowledge and creative skills. Be inspired by traditional masterpieces and contemporary works, with support from practicing professional artists, in Inigo Jones' architectural masterpiece.

Museum as Muse

Use our stunning historical and contemporary artworks to prepare your Art and Design students for GCSE and beyond. Students will explore the galleries for inspiration using art and design techniques with skilled professional artists. Learn from specially selected artworks, tailored to your theme, and engage in critical debate on a variety of themes such as identity, style and power.

Our sessions include our permanent and temporary artworks by contemporary artists such as Mat Collishaw, Bettina von Zwehl, Kehinde Wiley and Yinka Shonibare, plus historic artworks such as the famous Elizabeth I, the Armada Portrait.

Please aim to book at least four weeks in advance of your visit. Liaise with our Formal Learning Producer Chi Onuora to arrange your bespoke session: c.onuora@rmg.co.uk

Students will:
- investigate and critically analyse sources within an art gallery environment
- gain an understanding of relevant artistic practices in the creative and cultural industries
- develop critical-thinking, observation and object enquiry skills through a mixture of discussion, drawing and making activities

Key stage:	KS3, KS4 and KS5
Curriculum links:	Art and Design
Session times:	Flexible
Capacity:	Maximum 20 students per session
Session price:	Free

Saturday Art and Design Club

The National Maritime Museum is proud host of the Art and Design Saturday Club providing perfect, out-of-school opportunities for your students to continue developing. Throughout the year young people have the chance to try a wide range of art forms including mark-making, drawing, sculpture, sound design, and digital art.

Online resources

We have Art and Design learning resources available online to support pre- and post-visit activities and for self-guided visits to the Queen's House:
rmg.co.uk/schools

Arts Award

The Queen's House is an official Arts Award Supporter. If your students are working towards an Arts Award at any level from Discover through to Gold, then a visit to the Queen's House can support their work and be documented for their evidence. To find out more about Arts Award, visit artsaward.org.uk

Artsmark

A visit to the Queen's House can be used as evidence that your school champions arts and culture, and can contribute to your school achieving Bronze, Silver or Gold Artsmark recognition. To find out more about Artsmark, visit artsmark.org.uk

Teachers

We provide free CPD training sessions for Art and Design teachers which we can deliver at the Queen's House or at your school. We can also host your teacher event free of charge at either the Queen's House or the National Maritime Museum. Email learning@rmg.co.uk for more information.
