

The National Maritime Museum: Visual Guide

This guide has been created to help visitors navigate the Museum.

You can use this guide to help you choose what you want to see and do at the National Maritime Museum.

This is the National Maritime Museum in Greenwich.

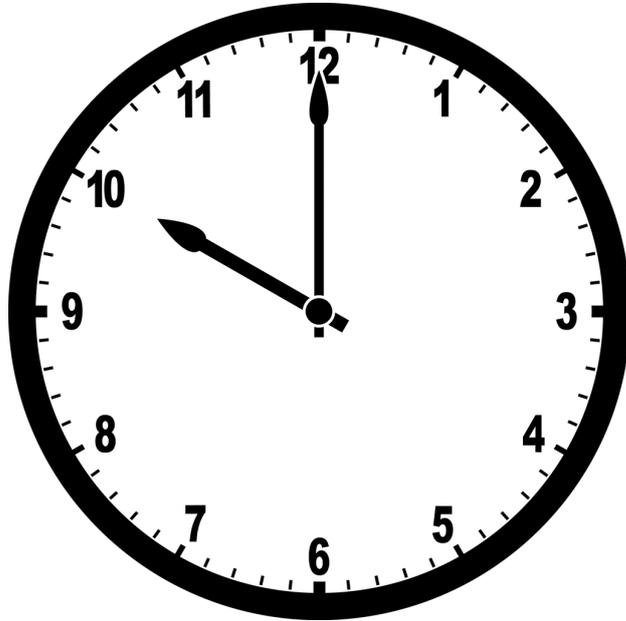

You can enter the Museum from the park side.

There are lots of things to see and do at the Museum.

The Museum is open everyday.

The Museum opens at 10am.

The Museum closes at 5:00pm.

When you come inside you will see the Museum staff.

You can say hello to the staff and ask them for help or directions if you would like.

At the moment the Museum is having some construction work done. This means some of our spaces are closed.

It also means there is a suggested route in place through the galleries.

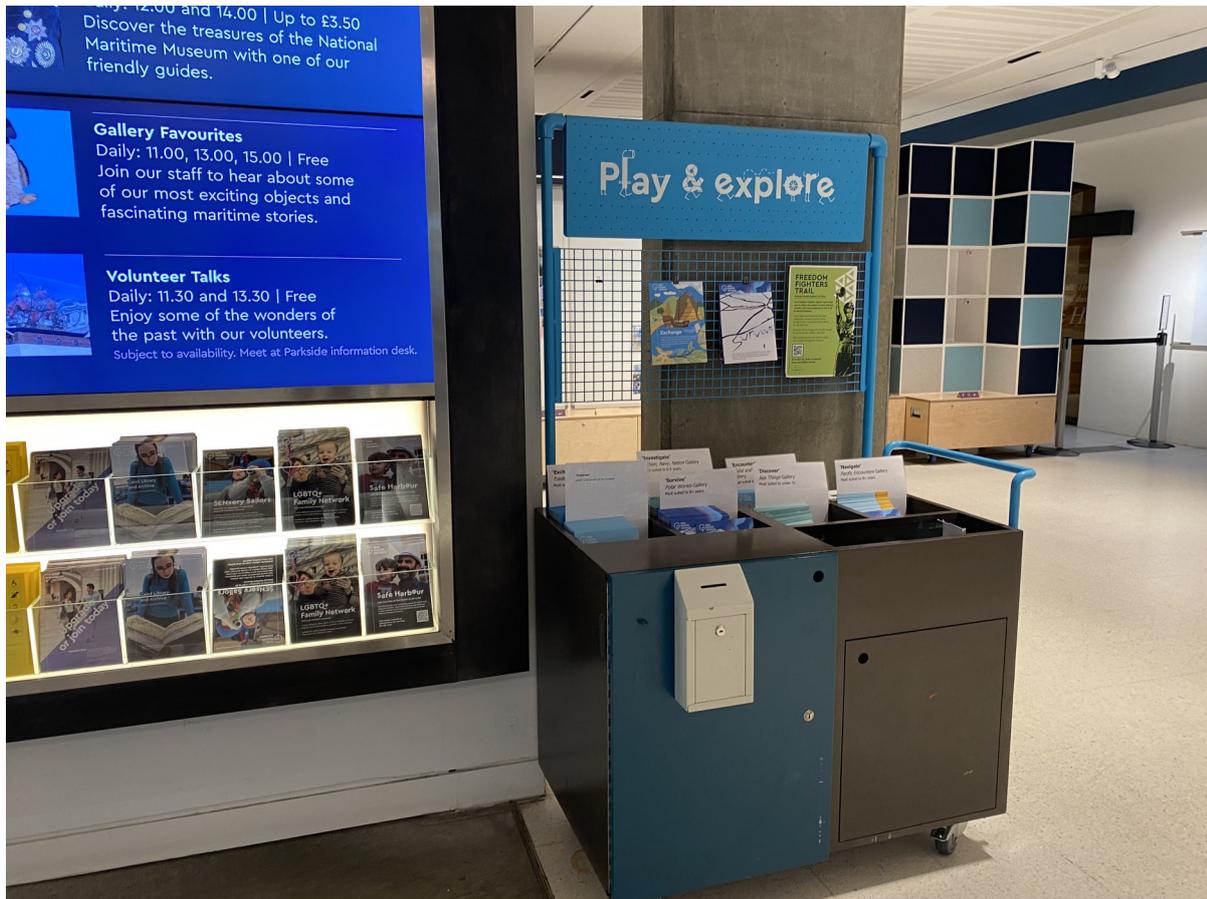

When you come inside, you will pass the visitor toilets.
There are also other toilets around the Museum.

There is also a changing places facility at the Museum.

When you arrive you can pick up a trail from the Play and Explore trolley to help you explore the galleries!

To go to the galleries, we recommend going through the tunnel.

This route will take you through the Astronomy Photographer of the Year exhibition.

From here you can go up the stairs to explore level 1 of the Museum.

At the National Maritime Museum, you can play:

You can play in the All Hands gallery on level 2

You can play in some of the galleries using the play boxes.

You can play in the Cove Playground.

If you need something to eat at the National Maritime Museum:

You can eat in the Parkside Café on the ground floor.

You can eat in the Terrace Café on level 1.

You can eat in the park

On the ground floor of the Museum you can see:

The Voyagers gallery

Women of the RNLI

On the Level 1 of the Museum you can see:

Sea Things

Pacific Encounters

Atlantic Worlds

Traders

Baltic Exchange Memorial Glass

To go down a level, to the Ground floor, you can use the lifts and stairs.

On Level 2 of the Museum you can see:

Polar Worlds

Tudor and Stuart Seafarers

Nelson, Navy, Nation

Forgotten Fighters

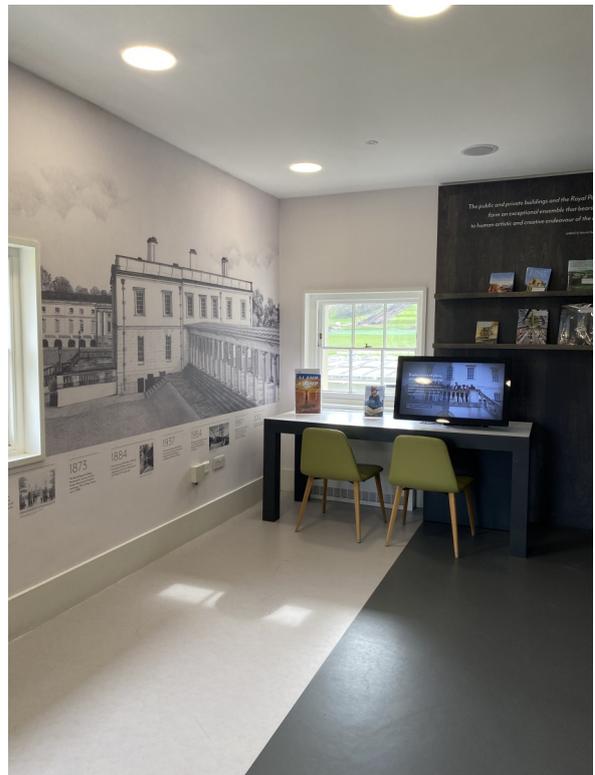

My Greenwich

If you want to go somewhere quiet you can:

Go to the Voyagers Gallery on the ground floor

Go to the My Greenwich space on the second floor

During the construction project, there may be changes to noise levels day to day. Our staff can help you find somewhere quiet.

Useful places

The toilets

By the park side entrance to the Museum.

Behind Baltic Glass on level 1.

Behind All Hands on level 2.

The Changing Places Facility

By the Parkside entrance. You will need to walk through the shop.

Speak to a member of staff to open this facility.

Please bring your own sling.

The lifts

By the photography exhibition.

Going up past Sea Things, Atlantic Worlds and Tudor and Stuart Seafarers.

By the hanging lanterns and learning space

Going up past Traders and Forgotten Fighters

Useful information

If you would like to sit down

You can find seats in galleries and around the Museum.

If you find the Museum too noisy

You can borrow ear defenders from the Welcome Desk.

You can download a sensory map of the National Maritime Museum from the website: <https://www.rmg.co.uk/plan-your-visit/facilities-access>

If you need help from a member of staff you can look for someone in blue, wearing a badge.

If you have any questions then you can speak to a member of staff.
The Ticket Bookings office is open 9am—5pm, Monday-Sunday:
Tel: +44 (0)20 8312 6608 | Email: bookings@rmg.co.uk