

STORIES FROM THE SEA

SHIPWRECK OBJECTS

THE MORNING HERALD

[FULTON COUNTY, NY, USA]

Date made

19 April 1912

Object ref.

ZBA4249; L5037

Credit

National Maritime Museum, Greenwich, London; Lord-MacQuitty Collection

Description

The Titanic disaster was the headline story in this newspaper four days after the ship sank. The report contains eyewitness accounts from survivors, some of whom are pictured. Dramatic language is used to describe the events of the disaster.

Questions

1. Can you write your own newspaper headline to describe a disaster at sea that you have investigated?
2. Do you think the people in the pictures are rich or poor?

Supported using public funding by

ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

