

National Maritime Museum

At the heart of Maritime Greenwich, this is the world's largest maritime museum, filled with inspirational stories of exploration, trade, bravery and adventure at sea.

The Museum is packed to the gunwales with intriguing objects, fascinating accounts and personal stories. Come and explore Britain's changing identity as an island nation and its relationship with the rest of the world, linked by the sea.

Must see...

Special Exhibitions Gallery
Catch our latest major temporary exhibition.

Voyagers
Explore the significance of Britain's maritime history and personal stories of our island nation.

Nelson, Navy, Nation
Encounter Britain's most famous naval hero, and explore the lives and legacies of those afloat and ashore in a tumultuous era.

Traders
Discover the history of Britain's maritime trade with Asia and the global impact of the East India Company.

For families
Check out our programme of family activities. Explore the world on the interactive Great Map, steer a ship into port on the ship simulator or come and play in 'Ahoy!', our brand-new children's gallery.

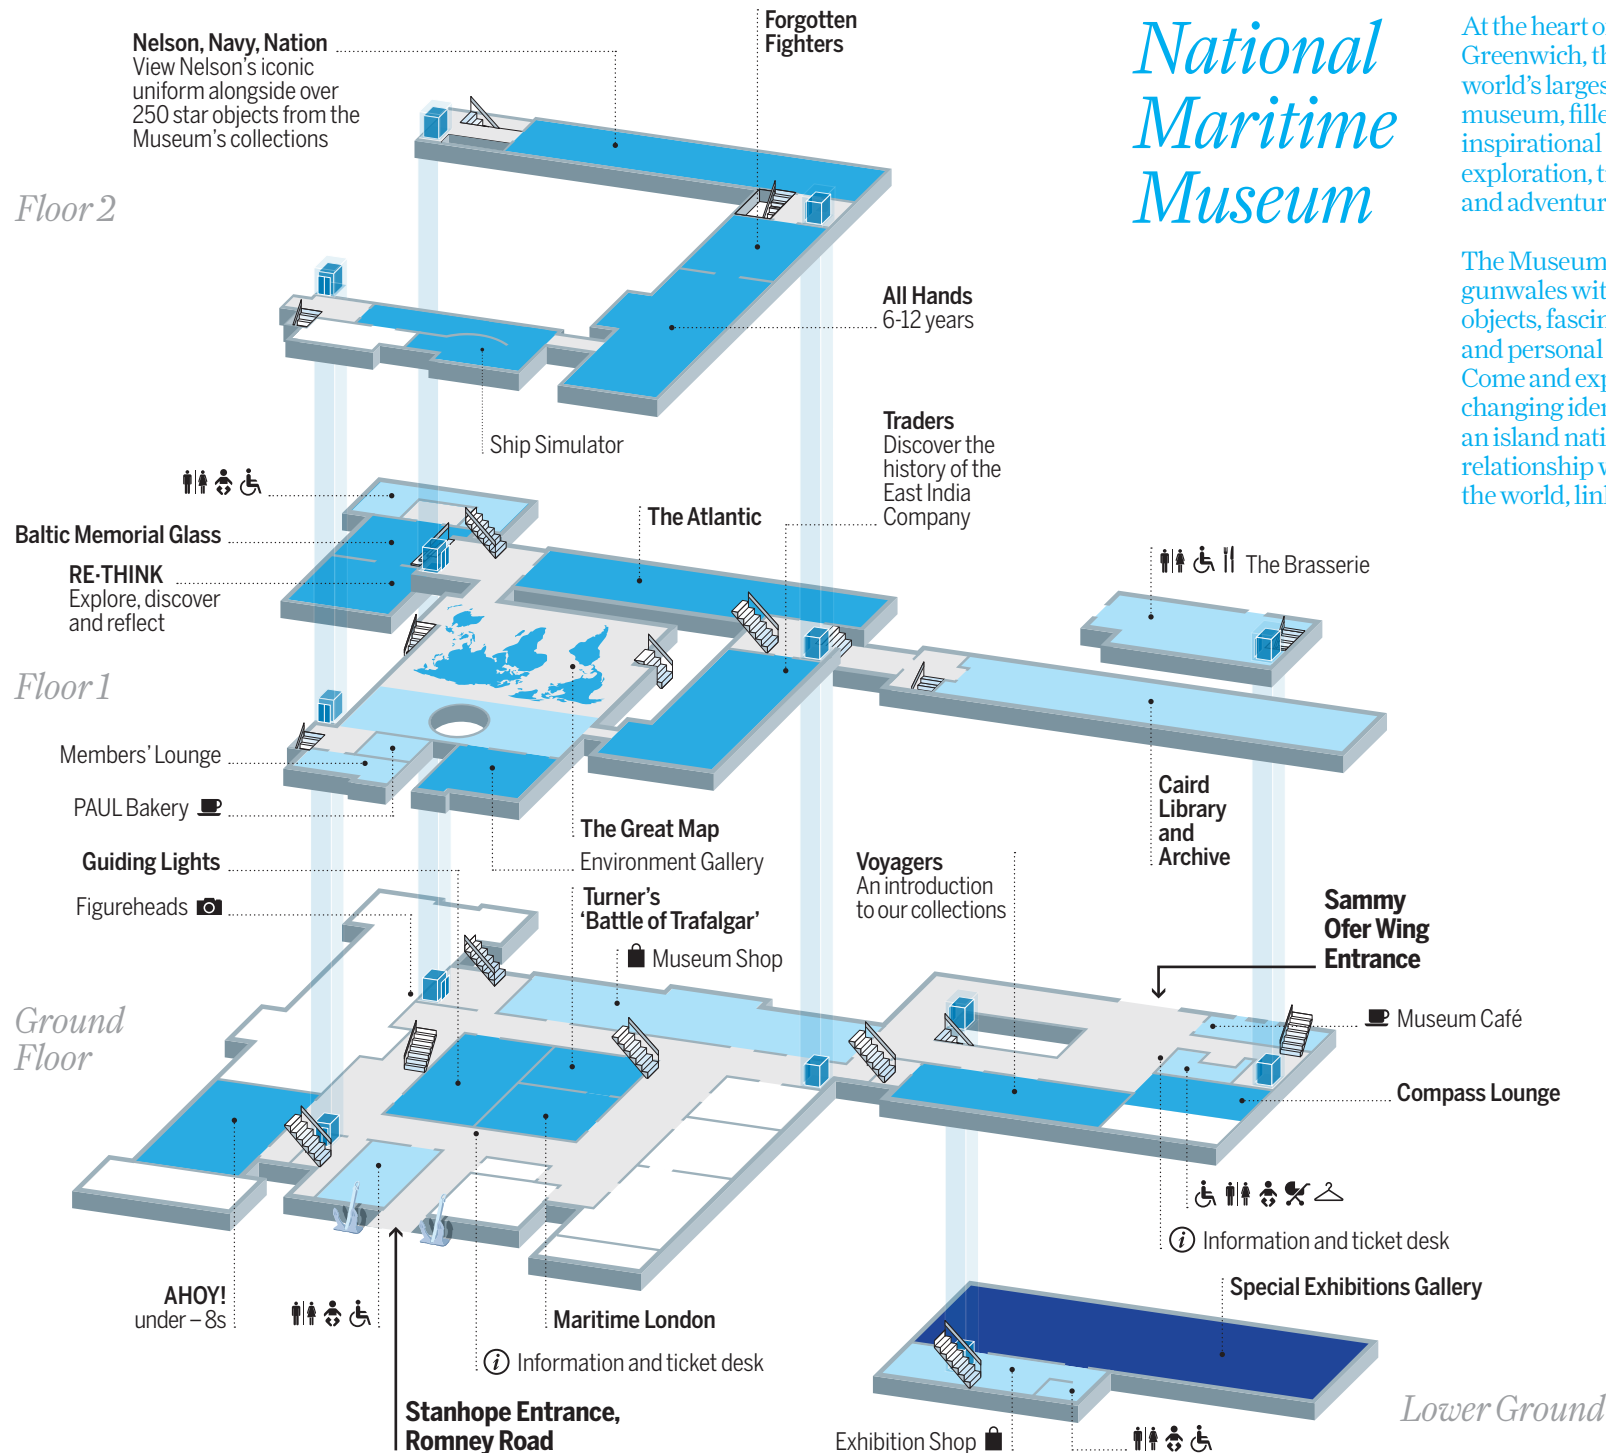

Views from The Brasserie
Enjoy the best of contemporary British cuisine at The Brasserie, with superb views out across Greenwich Park.

Where next...

- Queen's House Art Gallery
150m from Stanhope Entrance
- Royal Observatory Greenwich
400m from Sammy Ofer Wing Entrance
- Cutty Sark
400m from Stanhope Entrance

Key

- Paid areas
- Permanent galleries
- Retail, café & facilities
- Lifts, corridors, walkways
- No public access and event space

Floor 2

Floor 1

Ground Floor

Lower Ground

Stanhope Entrance, Romney Road