

The world's last surviving tea clipper offers a unique and memorable learning experience for pupils of all ages. Choose a self-directed visit or one of our fabulous facilitated workshops.

Facilitated sessions

Early Years Foundation Stage

All aboard the story ship*

Using our figurehead collection, learn about how the ship got its name through story-telling, song, dance, and art and design. Finish your visit with a self-guided tour of the ship for further story-telling inspiration.

A sailor went to sea*

Join Jack the rat when he sneaks aboard Cutty Sark on his first-ever voyage. Explore together and help him learn new sailor skills.

Key Stage 1

All aboard the story ship*

Using our figurehead collection, learn about how the ship got its name through story-telling, song, dance, and art and design. Finish your visit with a self-guided tour of the ship for further story-telling inspiration.

A sailor went to sea*

Practise sailor skills with our wise old figureheads, then set sail for a voyage of discovery and adventure.

Workshops last for one hour.
10.15-11.15 | 11.45-12.45 | 13.00-14.00
Finish your visit with self-directed time.

£140 per group for facilitated workshops.
Each workshop accommodates up to 30 children.
It is possible to book self-directed time at the National Maritime Museum.

Key Stage 2

A sailor went to sea

Inspired by the letter of a young apprentice, groups will explore props and clues before recreating a journey at sea through role play.

Sailors and stevedores – STEM

Don't tip the ship! Work scientifically to build boats and investigate how much weight can be added to your boat before it sinks.

Ships, maps and trade: the 'Great Tea Race'

Set sail on an exciting journey from Victorian London to China and study maps and images to find out what life was like for merchant sailors.

* Note that it is possible to book time in the AHOY! Children's Gallery at the National Maritime Museum, subject to availability.

Facilitated sessions

SEND

A sailor went to sea

Find out about sailor Jack's journey on Cutty Sark in this multi-sensory and participatory story-telling session

This session can accommodate up to ten children and their carers: however, we are only able to accommodate up to three wheelchair users per session.

£40 per session.

Bookable on demand.

SEND groups who prefer to book a self-directed visit may borrow our sensory bags: please enquire when booking a visit.

Self-directed visits

The fascinating stories of the ship and its crew offer a wide range of opportunities to support learning across the curriculum. Self-directed visits can be booked where workshops are not running, subject to availability.

£90 per group for self-directed visits.

Up to three groups of 30 students per day.

Free visits and bursaries

Royal Museums Greenwich is pleased to offer a limited number of free self-directed visits for Greenwich schools, as well as bursaries to schools in Greenwich and surrounding boroughs for our facilitated workshops.
